

Virtual Assistance & Literary Services

Nubian Sistas Book Club Literary Leader Talks Straight with Off The Shelf

Saturday, April 10, 2010 starting at 11:00 a.m. (EST) on "Off The Shelf Radio" (blogtalkradio.com/Denise-Turney-) Denise Turney sits down with Joy Farrington, president of Nubian Sistas Book Club and founder of the Nubian Literary Network. Turney and Farrington will talk about the impact of literature on communities. The two literary dynamos will also discuss the future of African American literature and creative arts.

Listeners who tune into the one-hour feature interview will learn how to gain the courage to go after the creative pursuits. Challenges of starting and running a successful business will also be discussed. Additionally, "Off The Shelf" listeners will learn how they can start, promote and grow their own book club without spending lots of money.

"Joy Farrington is a literary go getter," Turney shares. "She is a woman on a mission. From her literary network, to her social networking strategies to her book, Joy Farrington is someone who makes good things happen. We are honored to bring her to our Off The Shelf listeners as she will teach, inspire and motivate others to take the steps to fulfill their own dreams," Turney reveals.

Joy Farrington is the founder of Nubian Literary Network. She is also the author of the book, A Literary Divas Guide to Hosting a Fab Book Club Meeting. The book was released in early 2010.

"I encourage "Off The Shelf" listeners to take note of insights and tips that Joy Farrington shares during the one hour feature interview," Turney advises. "What they will learn during the interview could save them years of trial of error. They might hear the key to a puzzle they have been trying to unlock in their creative life."

Denise Turney is the author of the books Portia, Love Has Many Faces, Spiral, Long Walk Up and Love Pour Over Me (due out 2010). Turney is also the founder of The Book Lover's Haven, the international literary periodical that spotlights new, established and seasoned writers, editors, literary agents and other movers and shakers in the literary industry.

Denise Turney founded The Book Lover's Haven Network (<http://booklovershaven.ning.com>) to allow writers and book lovers to connect directly with each other, learn about job openings and post information about their books and

1

Lit Diva, Inc.
18520 NW 67th Ave #241, Miami, FL 33015
(o) 877-432-7386 (w) <http://litdiva.com> (e) litdivainc@gmail.com

Virtual Assistance & Literary Services

upcoming events. Membership in the Network is free and open to writers and readers around the world.

On Saturday, April 10, 2010 beginning at 11:00 a.m. (EST) book club president and literary media mogul, Joy Farrington, and Denise Turney will connect for an hour during the live on-air feature radio interview at "Off The Shelf." Listeners can connect to the interview live by dialing 347-994-3490. They can also connect to the live feature interview thru the Internet at <http://www.blogtalkradio.com/Denise-Turney->

Chistell Publishing PR
2500 Knights Road, Suite 19-01
Bensalem, PA 19020
<http://www.chistell.com>
chistellpr@aol.com

###